such property made subject to this Declaration, by acceptance of a deed or other conveyance of such interest, whether or not it shall be so expressed in any such deed or other conveyance, whether or not such deed or other conveyance shall be signed by such person, and whether or not such person shall otherwise consent in writing, shall take subject to this Declaration and to the terms and conditions

There shall be no duplexes, kindergartens, boarding or lodging houses, church buildings, apartment houses, townhouses, condominiums, cluster homes or row housing.

The exterior walls of all buildings constructed or to be constructed on all lots subject hereto shall be of brick, brick veneer, concrete, stone, wood siding, and of no other materials. No tin roofs will be permitted. All concrete blocks shall be stuccoed or otherwise covered.

No preconstructed, modular or prefabricated dwelling shall be allowed to be moved upon the property.

TWOANIMALS AND PETS

No stable, poultry house or yard, rabbit hutch or other similar structure shall be constructed or allowed to remain on any lot, nor shall livestock of any nature or classification whatsoever be kept or maintained on any lot without the express written permission of Declarants first had and obtained. However, household pets shall be permitted, provided they are not raised for commercial purposes.

THREESIZE OF DWELLINGS

No dwelling shall be erected as a copy or duplicate of any other existing dwelling in said subdivision nor shall be erected on any of the lots in said subdivision where the dwelling ground area thereof shall be less than fifteen hundred fifty (1550) square feet actual living and heated quarters in the case of a one-story structure. In the case of one and one-half story structure, two-story structure, split-level structure or split-foyer structure, no dwelling shall be erected on any lot in said subdivision where the ground area or main floor actual living and heated quarters thereof shall be less than eight hundred (800) square feet and where the second floor or upstairs is less than seven hundred fifty (750) square feet actual living and heated quarters. No residential lot shall be resubdivided into building plots of lesser size than the original as sold by Declarants. Boundary lines shall not be changed so as to reduce the size of any lots.

However, this restriction shall not prevent an owner of two adjoining lots from erecting one dwelling only on the line dividing the two lots so situated, but thereafter, said two lots shall be treated and considered as one lot and shall not thereafter be subdivided. Actual dwellings shall be constructed no closer than thirty (30) feet to each other from any point.

Any such screened enclosure must exceed in height by at least one (1) foot any such tank as may be placed therein.

(f) No chain link or barbed wire fences may be constructed. Other fences may be erected with written approval of Declarants.

(g) Each property owner shall provide space for parking two vehicles off the subdivision street prior to occupancy of any dwelling constructed on said lot and shall not use the streets for parking any vehicle at any time.

(h) All electrical service and telephone lines serving each dwelling shall remain underground on each lot.

(i) All mail or paper delivery boxes shall be made of brick, brick veneer, concrete, stone or wood and of no other material.

(j) All private driveways leading from subdivision streets shall be paved with hard surface, i. e., asphalt, brick, stone or concrete.

Violations or attempted violations on the part of any owner or his heirs, administrators, executors and assigns during the terms of these restrictions shall afford any other person or persons owning lots in said subdivision a right of action at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate these covenants either to restrain violations or to recover damages or both. Anyone violating these covenants shall be liable, in addition to any other damages proven, for reasonable attorney fees and court costs of one prosecuting the violation.

NINE

SEVERABILITY

Whenever possible, each provision of this Declaration shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid, but if any provision of this Declaration or the application thereof to any person or to any property shall be prohibited or held invalid, such prohibition or invalidity shall not affect any other provision or the application of any provision which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end provisions of this Declaration are declared to be severable.

TEN

AMENDMENT

Declarants reserve the right to amend these Covenants at any time until two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of lots have been sold by Declarants. Thereafter, these Covenants may be amended at any time by a document properly executed by the owners of two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of lots in this subdivision.

ELEVEN

DURATION

The Covenants and Restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land, shall be and remain in effect, and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by Declarants or the owners of any lot now or hereafter subjected to this Declaration, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, for a term of twenty (20) years from the date of this Declaration being filed for record in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Habersham County, Georgia. Said Covenants and Restrictions may be renewed and extended, in whole or in part, beyond said twenty (20) year terms for successive periods not to exceed ten (10) years each if an agreement for renewal and extension is signed by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the property owners whose lots are then subject thereto. No such agreement for renewal and extension shall be effective unless filed for record at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the effective date of such renewal and extension.
